

SESAH Emerging Professional Scholarship

SESAH offers one (1) scholarship of $400 to an emerging preservation professional who attends and presents a paper at the annual meeting. The purpose of the Emerging Professionals Scholarship is to encourage such non-academic professionals to join our scholarly and collegial community and to support the presentation of their research in the paper sessions. The scholarship may be used for transportation, registration, tour fees, food, and/or lodging.

Winners are expected to participate fully in the SESAH conference; this grant is not intended to support students, but seeks to enable new professionals to present a paper and attend/participate in the sessions, keynote address, and tour(s) offered in the program.

Eligibility

1.) Emerging professionals who are members of SESAH, 2.) are employed by a federal/state/local historic preservation office within the SESAH region (twelve states - Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia), and 3.) have worked in the preservation field less than five (5) years.

Application Process

Applicants must submit a scholarship application and paper proposal/abstract by the stated deadline. If the paper is accepted for presentation, applicants must submit a completed paper by August 1st: the award is based upon the elevation of the completed paper. The winner of the SESAH Emerging Professional Scholarship will be notified by August 15th.
